HERZ BUYS MONTGOMERY.

PAYS $25.000 AND WINS JOCKEY CLUB WEIGHT FOR AGE RACE.

Backs the Pessara Colt Heavily-Jack Atkin Stops After a Mile-De Mund Again

Quits-Muddy Track.

New York, June 3 .- Montgomery, running in the interest of Emil Herz, but carrying the colors of Forsythe, won the Jockey Club Weight for Age Race at Belmont Park this afternoon in such a manner as to stamp him as a thoroughly good three-year-old. Just before the horses went to the post Herz paid Forsythe $25,000 in cash for son of Pessara. The deal was not consummated in time for a change to be made in the jacket worm by the rider, but the horse ran for Herz and the value of the race is placed to his account. the new owner backed the colt liberally, it is likely that he won him half out, if not more

Last fall Forsythe asked $10,000 for Montgomery. Messrs, Mackenzie, of the Kirkfield Stable, being offered their choice, Montgomery or Tourenne at that figure. They bought the latter. Before that Mathew Corbett had an option on the colt for $7,500 and the horse Out of Reach, but Montgomery struck himself and the deal was off. When For sythe took Montgomery to New Orleans last winter to win the Crescent City Derby, he offered the cold to R. L. Thomas for $15,000. The deal was not closed and Forsythe made money by waiting. A few days ago Corbett offered $17,500, but this was refused, Forsythe holding out for $25,000.

That Montgomery is a smart colt there is no denying, and good judges do not consider the price for him unreasonable. He took up scale won with consummate weight today and Radtke waited on Jack Atkin to the last furlong, but when he turned Montgomery loose the cold passed the pacemaker in a half dozen strides to win cantering.

Jack Atkin was an added starter and was heavily He was well suited by the sloppy going but the distance, one mile and an eighth, was too much for him. He tired badly after going one

Continual rain since Saturday night had left the track a quagmire and withdrawals were numerous. De Mund again gave the talent a hard blow. It is hard to say why he was so heavily backed after his disappointing races this s-ring. The distance was seven furlongs, and he carried 138 pounds, yet he was backed from 5 to 2 to 3 to 2. He led to the stretch, then ran wide and quit badly, finishing

The public was in good form in spite of the changed track conditions, four of the races going the favorites, while the other winners were backed.

With the Van Cortlandt Handicap as the stake feature, tomorrow's card promises well and, Lad of Langden, Vervane, Ben Shaw; Sir Toddington, Master of Craft, The Cricket; Glorious Betsy Charles Edward, Sempro; Okenite, River; Buckman, Sheriff Williams, Dick Shaw; Holscher, Go Between and Nealon showing among the entries, good racing is in prospect.

Memphis and Nashville Tracks May Open Under Opinion by Judge Palmer.

Memphis, Tenn., June 3 .- Memphis will resume its place in the western racing circuit, according to admission made by New Memphis Jockey Club today after a decision handed down Judge Palmer in the second criminal court holding the Foust anti-beaung law invalid. Nashville can likewise reopen her track under Judge Palmer's de

According to local opinion, fall meetings for the runners are highly probable at both tracks to precede the winter meetings at New Orleans. An appeal from the lower court is to be taken by the people who have attacked horse racing in Tennessee for several years, but a hearing in the Supreme Court is hardly within the possibilities until June, 1908. This will permit racing with until June, 1908. This will permit racing with betting under the old law in any part of the state for at least a year.

Attorney-General Yeger said that he had hoped to secure the opinion in the lower court several weeks ago, so that an appeal could be taken to the higher tribunal. He admits that it will be a shigher tribunal. He admits that it will be a year before he can bring the appeal to the attention of the supreme judges.

In holding that the act, known as Senate Bill No. 2, contained more than one subject in its caption and was therefore null and void under the statute.

Judge Palmer decided that a subsequent act inflicting penalties upon those who encouraged betting on horse races had nothing left to stand on. The indictments against the New Memphis Jockey Club for mainaining betting on its property during a matinee of racing in April was therefore ordered quashed.

The knocking out of the anti-betting law in the court is the second set back in three years. The so-called reform element caused the Rice-Ligon measure to pass both houses in the legislature two years ago,

SATISFACTORY RACING AT OAKLAND

Four Favorites Win but Some Folks Frown at Defeat of Others.

Oakland, Cal., June 3.—The racing here today was in the main satisfactory to the betting public. Combury stood at practically the same closing odds, but the chief wagering was confined throughout the betting in this race on the former.

The running of The Captain and Andrew Mack favorites respectively in the third and fourth race evoked criticism. Both of the horses were badly

MORDANT WINS THE FRENCH DERBY

The Prix du Jockey Club (the French Derby), for three-year-olds at one and one-half miles, was run at Chantilly Sunday and resulted in the unexpected victory of Maurice Ephrussi's Mordant. Mordan was an outsider in the betting, 26 to 1 being laid against him. He won by three-quarters of a length. Edmond Veil Picard's Biniou was second and Raymond De Monbel's Bravo third, two lengths away

STYRIAN WINS AUSTRIAN DERBY.

The Austrian Derby, one and one-half miles, valued at $25,000, run at Vienna Sunday, was won by Count Wenkheim's Styrian from Count Henckel's Come in Time. Herr Szemere's Langolo and Herr von Willer's Hieronymus ran a dead heat for third Colt Out of An American Mare Has a Good Chance for the Derby Tomorrow.

Harry Stanhope of Lexington, Ky., who bred Rhoda B., the dam of Richard Croker's Orby, is in Eng land to see the running of the Epsom Derby to morrow. Mr. Stanhope made the trip abroad for the sole purpose of witnessing the performance of the son of the full sister to The Commoner, for Rhods B. is a daughter of Hanover and Margerine. Stanhope sold Rhoda B. to Mr. Croker, and he has since had offers from the former Tammany leader for Marechal Neil, likewise a daughter of Hanover and Margerine. Marechal Neil is now eleven years old, and has at her side at the Stanhope place a handsome black colt by Water-

According to cablegrams during the last day or two English racing men are in a funk over the chances of Orby for the Derby. The columns of sporting papers show fear that this Irish-bred colt with the American will win or take a place in the race is gen nine

"There has been a great deal of secrecy," say J. M. Dick, one of the foremost sporting writers in England, "about Orby's real ability, especially since Mr. Croker's row with the Jockey Club and its re usal to allow him to train in Newmarket heath. Croker paid an enormous price for the use of a private training farm in Wiltshire, but subsequently eing displeased by the publicity there, he took his colt to Baldoyle, Ireland.

"I am informed by my representative there that at a recent trial, went the Derby distance only five seconds slower than the record made by Spearmint when he won last year's Derby, and made the try-out without being really wound up. This performance, in conjunction with the colt's won derful showing at Manchester, convinces me that Orby stands a good chance to win. The fight for first place will be between him and Lord Rosebery's If Orby passes the wire first he will be the first Irish-trained horse to win the Derby.

"English breeders don't want this record broken this year, especially since Orby has more than slash of Yankee blood in him."

Mr. Dick, who saw Orby at Epsom recently, characterizes him as a very smart colt, with the one fault that all four legs are rather straight, which may hinder his traveling the down-hill stretch and finish of the Derby course at Epsom.

The Sporting Times predicts that the order of the finish of the Derby will be Slieve Gallion, Bezonian, oy. Respecting Orby, it says:
'We hear that he is a tremendous horse and has won two races this year without being extended. What his owner most goes upon, however, is his two-stone superiority to Haydon, which has won some good races lately and was beaten by only a head in a large field when he tried to win the Tudor Plate at Sandown Park.

"Orby occupies much the same position as the slashing Woolwinder, who cannot be measured by horses. It may be that Orby will upset all calculations, and we hesitate between him and Bezonian which will get a place.

"The strength of this comparison is seen by the large number of persons who are backing Bezonian to win."

The Sportsman, which is on a par with the Sport ing Times, makes the prediction that Bezonian will Jack II. and Dromio in action, the run away from the field. Captain Greer's Slieve Gallion is at the present time the 2 to 1 favorite. cablegram was received in New York yesterday by J. M. Murphy, the bookmaker, from Richard Croker, which read as follows:

"Convey my hearty thanks for good wishes to Messrs. Keene, Corbett, Appleby and old friends. Orby can only win by the rarest good luck."

ARTFUL GOES TO THE STUD.

New York, June 3 .- All hope that Artful will race again has been abandoned. The daughter of Ham burg has been struck out of her engagements a pshead Bay and Brighton Beach, and was sen to Kentucky today to be bred to Meddler.

Artful bowed a tendon last spring preparing for the Suburban Handicap, and Mr. Whitney immedi ately shipped her to Brookdale Farm to rest up. She roughed it the greater part of last summer and all last winter, and when Rogers arrived from Aiken, where he wintered that portion of the Whitney string destined for early racing, he found her comparatively sound, and it is a great disappoint-ment to the trainer that she has finally failed to stand preparation.

PAT DUNNE SCORES DOUBLE.

MACKEREL AND ENVOY, BOTH FAVOR ITES, WIN THEIR RACES.

Lights Out Takes the Steeplechase-Dr. Heard Unseats McClure-Artful Dodger Gets the Best of the Start.

Louisville, Ky., June 3 .- Today's card at Churchill Downs was probably the poorest of the meeting, the steeplechase over the short course and an allowance race at seven furlongs holding out chief interest for a fairly big crowd. Pat Dunne was much in evidence. He scored a double with Mackerel and Envoy, and both were favorites. Mackerel, which he recently purchased from Robert Tucker, outclassed his opponents in the third and won the easiest victory of the afternoon. Envoy had to be driven out to the limit to get home in advance of Lights Out was lucky to land the steeplechase. Dr. Heard, the favorite, stumbled on the flat after the sixth jump and unseated McClure. He might have won with better handling.

The closing race resulted in one of the tightest finishes of the meeting, five of the starters passing the judges in such close alignment that it was difficult to foreshadow which had won until the numbers were displayed. Matador was given the He was at 30 to 1. Sultry, which purse. placed fourth, appeared to many in the stand to have finished second.

The start in the second race was responsible for Artful Dodger's victory. He was away running with a clear lead of about five lengths and, under a good ride, managed to last long enough to win by nose from Camille. Evelyn S. beat thirteen other maiden fillies in the opening race and won handily.

Judge Morrow is here in the interest of Windsor. He expects to ship at least twelve carloads of horses to the Canadian track during the next ten Jockey W. McIntyre was fined $25 by the starter for disobedience at the post. Jockey Moreland will leave tonight for Hamilton. W. J. Donohue will leave tomorrow for Latonia with Rebel Queen, Refined, Pete Vinegar, Dona H. and others. Hughes Brothers will depart for Latonia Thursday. Boland and C. Dugan will each ship several horses to Denver. I. B. Fitzgerald and A. Worley will leave tonight with their horses for Hamilton. Jockey McClure had his thumb dislocated and his leg injured by his tumble from Dr. Heard.

With a card that promises such horses as Boserrian, Alencon, Frank Flesher; Merry Blue, Buto, Dandy Dancer; Lexoline, Gargantua, Victoria B.; Colonel Jim Douglas, Old Honesty, Phil Finch; Hester Zorra, Margaret Randolph, Lavatrina; Request, Princess Orna, Minnehaha; Leta Duffy, Happy Jack II. and Dromio in action, the prospect is

HAMILTON'S FAIR OPENING DAY CARD.

Seven Races with Small Fields-Hamilton Derby Will Be the Feature.

Hamilton, Ont., June 3 .- The Hamilton Jockey Club will open its spring meeting of twelve days with a fair card of seven races, the feature of which will be the first running of the Hamilton Derby. The weather is clear and a fast track is expected. The overnight favorite for the Derby is Ellicott, with Tourenne as the second choice. tive fields in all the races are small.

Nearly 400 horses are now stabled at the track and there will be no lack of material for flat racing, but the probabilities are that the management will have a hard time filling a steeplechase every day as is planned. There is a scarcity of jumpers and no more are likely to come here. The last expected consignment of horses arrived on a special train from Toronto tonight.

Smith & Perry of Chicago, will be in charge of the betting, which will be conducted after the style adopted at Toronto.

The Hamilton Derby is the main feature of an attractive card for tomorrow and with Charlie Eastman, Avaunteer, La Pucelle; Merlingo, Posing, Bon Mot; Johnnie Blake, Clell Turney, Ellicott, Tourenne, Temmeraire; Picktime, Abteryx, Ohnet; Sainzilla, J. W. O'Neill, Moonvine; Prince Brutus, Irene A. and Merry George, among the Brutus, Irene A. and Merry probable starters, excellent racing seems in pro-John Wiesen.

New Orleans, La., June 3 .- Steeplechase jockey "Shorty" Major was out of the hospital Sunday for the first time since he was injured by a fall with Fabian in the steeplechase race at City Park, March Major laid in the hospital for twenty-three days unconscious. ### ST. VOLMA TO RACE AT SARATOGA.

Louisville, Ky., June 3.—The remarkable showing of St. Volma in the Louisville Steeplechase Saturday is still a topic of discussion among local horsemen and the four-year-old son of St. Florian—Volma is now conceded to be the best jumper seen in the west for years. St. Volma, since becoming the property of J. C. Ferriss, Jr., has-started in three stakes and won them all. He will be sent to Saratoga, where he is liberally engaged in steeplechase stakes. In speaking of St. Volma, Mr. Ferriss said: "If Balzac, which I sold to Wille Shields, was worth $10,000, St. Volma is worth a pretty steep figure, as I consider him a much better horse. At any rate, I intend to take a $15,000 chance and keep him."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Sanctus has a split hoof and raced with a strap around it in the Whitney Memorial.

Beldame, at August Belmont's Nursery Stud, foated a filly last week by Meddler. Major T. J. Carson has twenty yearlings at Divi-ana Farm that will go to the sale ring this summer. It is said that M. H. Tichenor has decided to sell Good Luck and Eddie Ware, the only horses he now has in training.

Herculoid is now in the stable of E. R. Thomas, being prepared by easy stages for the Great Autumn and Champion Steeplechases to be run next fall.

Jockeys Pemberton and Yourell reported to the Louisville police that while out driving Sunday, they were held up by a gang of negroes and relieved of their valuables.

If the handicapper continues to pile the weight on Nealon "Boots" Durnell might as well give up all hope of winning a race with the Sain colt, which ran third in the Brooklyn Handicap.—New York Sun.

The Kentucky Oaks will be run Saturday and with uch fillies as Altuda, Electorine, Miss Alert, Wing lng, Victorla B. and Lillie Turner among the farters, the race should attract a tremendous rowd to Churchill Downs.

crowd to Churchill Downs.

"We miss Commando now," sald James R. Keene to one of his friends after Colin's race for the National Stallion Stakes Saturday, "The dead stallion would have been one of the greatest 'sires in America's breeding industry had he lived."

"Despite the defeat of 102 favorites in the 144 races decided up to date, the bookmakers claim that they are big losers," says a Louisville paper of yesterday. "Judging by the daily volume of play indulged in by the talent, there is ground for the bookmakers' claim."

"Superman is not a weight carrier," said a Chicagoan who knows horses and saw the sen of Commando finish second to Peter Pan in the Belmont Stakes. "If he does anything remarkable under heavy imposts I will be greatly surprised. Frank Gill is a good horse in the right company, but he has no business with Peter Pan and he is not the horse a lot of people think he is."

COLIN IS BRED FOR GREAT THINGS IN RACING.

When Colin made his racing debut by whipping twenty-two two-year-olds in the second race at Belmont Park last Wednesday he caught the fancy of New York's racing horde and when he came back to win the National Stallion Race Saturday, setting a mark of 58 for five furlongs over the straight course at Belmont Park, they took him to their hearts with the belief that he is to prove himself the best horse of his age for this good year 1907. After that first race it is related that someone said to trainer Jimmy Rowe, "You surely have there a second Sysonby."

As a three-year-old he started only three times, winning the Belmont and Carlton Stakes and finishing second in the Realization Stakes. In the Carlton Stakes he ran the mile in 1:39\(\frac{1}{2}\) with 126 pounds up. This canded his career on the turf, his winnings totaling $57.973. He went into the stud at the place of his birth in the spring of 1902 and died there March 13, 1905, so Colin is one of the last of his three crops of foals, Peter Pan, Superman and Mentha being of the second crop, while Sahara, Oyama, Oasis, Commida and Kurokl are of the first of his produce.

The mighty Domino. America's premier money

The mighty Domino, America's premier money winner, lived one year less than Commando. Domino was bred by the late Major B. G. Thomas and was foaled at Hira Villa Farm in 1891. He died the property of Mr. Keene at Castleton Stud July 29, 1897, and was buried at the place of his birth, his grave being marked with a handsome monument. Domino was unplaced only three times in his career. He started in twenty-five races, won nineteen of them, was second twice, third once, and earned $193,550.

Himyar, also bred by Major Thomas, was one

Australia and numbered among her victories the Australian Cup. Colin's English ancestors were truly great horses.

Springfield was not a Derby winner, but be was one of the best racchorses of his day. Hie won all of his nine starts at three and was again umbeaten at four. He was the sire of Sainfoin, which won the Derby in 1890 and in turn sired Rock Sand, winner of the Derby, St. Leger and Two Thousand Guineas in 1903. In his three seasons of racing Rock Sand won $237,590 and was sold to August Behnom for $125,000. He was brought to America Rock Sand won $237,590 and was sold to August Behnom for $125,000. St. Albans was one of the best sons of Speingfield and he was a good racchorse.

St. Albans was one of the best sons of Stockwell, though not a winner of the Derby, nor fortunate enough to have sired a winner of that great classic, yet there was some glory coming to him in the fact that he won the St. Leger in 1861 and his full brother, Savernake, finished second to the great ker did Lyon in both the Derby and St. Leger in 1865. Stockwell, one of the greatest sires the world has ever known, was foaled in 1850 and died May 5. 1870. He was bred by Mr. Theobold, who, because of his great size, did not fancy him, so he let him go to Lord Exeter for $900 with the contingency of $2.500 more should he win the Derby. Lord Exeter did not have to pay the contingency, for Stockwell was unplaced in the classic in 1852, which was won by Daniel O'Rourke. Stockwell has the distinction of being the only horse to sire three placed horses in the St. Leger. Though Stockwell failed in the classic in 1852, which was won by Daniel O'Rourke in winning the race for Lyon, being also sons of Stockwell. Winner—Ch. c, by Admonition—Fatality (trained by L. Jones).

Went to post at 3:05. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Artful Dodger broke fast and, showing superior speed, led by a good margin for the first five furlongs, then tired slightly but, staying gamely in the stretch drive, just got home. Camille, hard ridden in the early stages, finished resolutely through the last quarter and would have won in a few more strides. Hazel Patch closed a gap in the last quarter and ran fairly well. Demo, in close quarters and in the vorst going for the first half, came fast in the last quarter. Deacon closed a big gap and came from a long way back in the stretch. Western was in a tangle most of the way and thred in the stretch. Joe Fallert lacked speed. Little George quit badly after going a quarter. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Gresham, shuffled back soon after the start and suffering from additional interference on the stretch turn, finished with a rush and got up in the closing strides for third place. Went to post at 4:01. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Lights Out, well fiandled and reserved for the first turn of the field, moved up when called on and, wearing down Graceland in the stretch, won drawing away. Graceland was rushed too much in closing a big gap in the middle stages and tired when hard driven in the stretch. Killdoe was sore when going to the post and blundered frequently at the jumps, crashed through the water jump and almost fell, tired fast near the end and can do much better. Dr. Heard was going well when he stumbled after going over the sixth jump and unseated his rider.
